

Cautionary Notes Magenta

To accompany Notice to Mariners 3130/2023

On Chart 323

CROSS-CHANNEL FERRIES
Ferries enter and leave Dover and other ports at frequent intervals. Vessels passing Dover should keep at least 1 mile off the breakwaters. Information concerning shipping movements can be obtained from Dover Vessel Traffic Service and Ramsgate Port Control. See ADMIRALTY List of Radio Signals.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 3130/2023

On Chart 1610

CROSS-CHANNEL FERRIES
Ferries enter and leave Dover and other ports at frequent intervals. Vessels passing Dover should keep at least 1 mile off the breakwaters. Information concerning shipping movements can be obtained from Dover Vessel Traffic Service and Ramsgate Port Control. See ADMIRALTY List of Radio Signals.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 3130/2023

On Chart 1698

VESSEL REPORTING
For details of the Dover Vessel Traffic Service see ADMIRALTY List of Radio Signals. The jurisdiction of Dover Harbour Board extends 1 mile seaward of the breakwaters.
All yachts should report to Dover VTS on VHF Ch 74 when 2 miles from the port.
All vessels must report within 1 mile of the port and take traffic instructions from Dover VTS.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 3130/2023

On Chart 1828

CROSS-CHANNEL FERRIES
Ferries enter and leave Dover and other ports at frequent intervals. Vessels passing Dover should keep at least 1 mile off the breakwaters. Information concerning shipping movements can be obtained from Dover Vessel Traffic Service and Ramsgate Port Control. See ADMIRALTY List of Radio Signals.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 3130/2023

On Chart 1892

CROSS-CHANNEL FERRIES
Ferries enter and leave Dover and other ports at frequent intervals. Vessels passing Dover should keep at least 1 mile off the breakwaters. Information concerning shipping movements can be obtained from Dover Vessel Traffic Service and Ramsgate Port Control. See ADMIRALTY List of Radio Signals.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 3130/2023

On Chart 2449

CROSS-CHANNEL FERRIES
Ferries enter and leave Dover and other ports at frequent intervals. Vessels passing Dover should keep at least 1 mile off the breakwaters. Information concerning shipping movements can be obtained from Dover Vessel Traffic Service and Ramsgate Port Control. See ADMIRALTY List of Radio Signals.

To accompany Notice to Mariners 3130/2023

On Chart 2451

CROSS-CHANNEL FERRIES
Ferries enter and leave Dover and other ports at frequent intervals. Vessels passing Dover should keep at least 1 mile off the breakwaters. Information concerning shipping movements can be obtained from Dover Vessel Traffic Service and Ramsgate Port Control. See ADMIRALTY List of Radio Signals.